

Disclaimer

The Cloquet Public Library is making every effort to keep you and our staff safe from the coronavirus.

All materials are wiped down and isolated for 7 days prior to returning to circulation.

Staff members wear gloves while checking materials in and wipe down equipment and surfaces on a regular basis and wash hands regularly.

All staff members following the Return to Work Policy as approved by the City of Cloquet, which includes self-monitoring for signs and symptoms of COVID-19, handwashing, respiratory etiquette, social distancing, limited in-person interactions and physical contact, regular disinfecting and cleaning, and keeping up-to-date on information and health recommendations.

If you feel uncomfortable with our measures, please refrain from using our services at this time.
